

" Fiji's Newest Eco-tourism Resort"

The closest island resort to the mainland, Bounty Island Sanctuary Resort is located on Kadavulailai Island in the Mamanuca Group, less than 15 kilometres from Nadi International Airport.

The island offers 48 acres of untouched land with tropical gardens all surrounded by golden sandy beaches, clear pristine waters and a marine reserve that provides spectacular snorkeling. Daily activities include trekking, cycling, snorkelling, kayaking, catamaran sailing, rugby, volleyball on the beach; traditional games and an array of entertainment.

Bounty Island Sanctuary Resort provides low budget accommodation for the whole family. There are ten European family size tents with two separate sleeping compartments and a shaded porch, separate female and male dormitories and eight private rooms.
