

MANGO MAIL

Bula All,

 The first couple of months for this year have just flown past at Mango Bay Resort as we have been very busy coordinating our weekly Saturday night theme parties. To get into the spirit of Saturday nights guests and staff are encouraged to express their individuality and creativity through costume. Parties to date have ranged from a 'Pyjama Party', 'Shipwrecked Party', 'Mad Hatter's Party', 'Bula Hula Party' and a 'Retro Party'! Below are a few snapshots of the weekly shannanagans:

* click on thumbnails below for bigger image

 It's really has been amazing the amount of effort some people go into making a costume, but it's all in the name of having fun and meeting new friends.

Our MANGO MADNESS OPENING SPECIALS are almost coming to a close by the 31st March 2006, so get in quick to experience this fantastic once ever only deal. Imagine waking up in a traditional Fijian thatched bure that has absolute beachfront views and your own personal outdoor tropical shower.

 Because we like to offer something a little bit different here at Mango Bay Resort we also have African Safari Tents! Discover the sensation of sleeping in a 5 star tent complete with private en-suite, fan, electricity, floating timber floors and sun deck verandah.

 The Fijian word to celebrate this month's Mango Mail March issue is:

'Sega Na Leqa': The Fijian word for "No worries"

 For further details please refer to our website www.mangobayresortfiji.com or please drop us an email – info@mangobayresortfiji.com

Sega Na Leqa!

The Mango Bay 'ers

